

Notes on the Contributors

Nikola Baković – Archivist, Regional Historical Archives of Čačak (Serbia). Main areas of research: history of socialist Yugoslavia; local history of Čačak region. Other research interests: Political rituals; Cultural history; History of migrations. Most recent publication: -“No One Here is Afraid of Blisters or Work!’ Modes of Social Integration and Cooperation at Early Yugoslav Youth Labour Actions. Examples of Čačak Region Brigades (1946-1952)”. Hungarian Historical Review 1/2015. E-mail: nikola.bakovic@arhivcacak.org.rs.

Dalia Băthory – PhD in International Relations and European Studies, Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Romania. Researcher at The Institute for the Investigation of the Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile. Main area of research: history of Communism. Other research interests: collective memory, history and memory in post-communism, transitional justice, social anthropology. Most recent publication: - “Transitional Justice: Between Political Myth and Civil Society Reality”. History of Communism in Europe no.4, 2013. Bucharest: Zeta Books. E-mail: dalia.bathory@gmail.com.

Ștefan Bosomitu – PhD in History, University of Iași, Romania; researcher at The Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile. Main areas of research: History of Romanian Communism, the Biographies of Communist Nomenclature. Other research interests: Intellectuals and Communism, Communist Propaganda, History of Social Sciences during Communism. Most recent publication: - Miron Constantinescu. O biografie [Miron Constantinescu. A Biography], București: Humanitas, 2014. E-mail: stefan.bosomitu@gmail.com.

Sebastian Haller - Danube University Krems, Austria. Main areas of research: GDR media history, visual culture, media and film studies. E-mail: sebastian.haller@donau-uni.ac.at.

Renata Jambrešić Kirin – senior researcher at Institute of Ethnology and Folklore Research (Zagreb). Main areas of research: women’s history of the XX century, history of socialism. Other research interests: oral literature, postcolonial and feminist theory. Most recent publication: – & S. Carotenuto, S. Prlenda, eds. A Feminist Critique of Knowledge Production. Naples: L'Orientale University Press, (Photocity Edizioni), 2015, ISBN 978-88-6682-666-8. E-mail: renata@ief.hr.

Camelia Lelesan - Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, Paris. Main area of research : History of Communism. Other research interests: International Relations in the 20th century, post-Soviet Russia. Most recent publication: - “The Power of the Ritual - the System of Rites as a Form of Legitimacy in the Soviet Union”, History of Communism in Europe, vol.5/2014. E-mail: camilelesan@gmail.com.

Barbara Loach – PhD. in Romance Languages from The Ohio State University. Main area of research: contemporary Latin American women writers. Other research interests: U.S.-Latin American relations, Latinos in the U.S., Latino immigration, multicultural education. Most recent publication: - “Evangelical Perspectives on Latino Immigration” in Giordan, G. & Swatos, W.H. (2013). Testing pluralism: Globalizing belief, localizing gods. Leiden, The Netherlands: Brill. E-mail: loachb@cedarville.edu.

Giuseppe Perri - Member of the CIERL - Centre interdisciplinaire d'étude des religions et de la laïcité. ULB - Université Libre de Bruxelles – Belgium. Main area of research: history and culture of Ukraine. Other research interests: history of modern Italy. Most recent publication: -, La ricca fontana. Una biografia dell'Ucraina moderna. Fonti storiche, fonti letterarie, Sesto Fiorentino (Italy), 2015. E-mail: Giuseppe.perri@ulb.ac.be.

Radu Stancu – researcher, University of Bucharest, National Archives of Romania. Main area of research: historical criminology. Other research interests: history of communism, legal and medical history of communist Romania, documentary editing. Most recent publication: - “The Political Use of Capital Punishment in Communist Romania between 1969 and 1989.” In Capital Punishment. New Perspectives, edited by Peter Hodgkinson, 337-357. Farnham: Ashgate Publishing, 2013. E-mail: raducustancu@gmail.com.

Ioana-Zoia Sandu (Ursu)- Ph.D. Student, Babeş-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of History and Philosophy. Main area of research: the Romanian Communist Repression. Other research interests: History of communism, oral history, discourse analysis, intellectual history, studies in martyrdom. Most recent publication: - “Prayer, Resistance, Repression: the Burning Bush from the Antim Monastery” in Eucharist and Martyrdom. From the Ancient Catacombs to the Communist Prisons. Proceedings of the 13th International Symposium on Science, Theology and Arts (ISSTA 2014), vol. I, Alba-Iulia, Reîntregirea, 2014. E-mail: ioana_ursu@hotmail.com.

Andrea Talabér - PhD researcher, European University Institute. Main area of research: 19th and 20th century Central Europe, especially Hungary and the Bohemian Lands/Czechoslovakia. Other research interests: Urban history, Central and East European cultural history. Most recent publication: - Review of Gafijczuk, Dariusz and Derek Sayer (eds) The Inhabited Ruins of Central Europe: Re-Imagining Space, History and Memory, Basingstoke and New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2013, in European Review of History/ Revue européenne d'histoire, June 2015 at <http://dx.doi.org/10.1080/13507486.2015.1035018>. E-mail: andrea.talaber@eui.eu.