

Notes on contributors

Andreea Zamfira

PhD in Political and Social Sciences, Université Libre de Bruxelles, University of Bucharest; Affiliated researcher, CEVIPOL (Center for the Study of Political Life), Université Libre de Bruxelles, Brussels; Lecturer at the University of South-East Europe and University of Bucharest; Her recent works include: Andreea ZAMFIRA, “Locul democrației creștine într-o Europă (postcomunistă) a complexelor istorice”, in Revista de Științe Politice/Revue des Sciences Politiques, no. 28, 2010; Andreea ZAMFIRA, Dragoș DRAGOMAN, «Le vote (non)ethnique en Roumanie 2000-2008», in Revue d'Études Comparatives Est-Ouest, Paris, vol. 40, no. 2, 2009, pp. 127-156.

Valentine Lomellini

Valentine Lomellini is currently Research Fellow at the Department of International Studies at the University of Padua. She gained a Ph.D at the Institute of Advanced Studies IMT; her first book “L'appuntamento mancato. La sinistra italiana e il Dissenso nei regimi comunisti, 1968-1989”, has gained the Medal of the President of the Italian Republic and has been published by Le Monnier-Mondadori in 2010. She is now working at the publication of “Les relations dangereuses. The PSF, the PCF and the human rights issue in the Soviet bloc, 1968-1981”, which will be published by Peter Lang in 2011. Together with Prof. Varsori, she is working on a project on the political and cultural relations between the PCI and the US during the '70s.

Alina Pavelescu

Alina Pavelescu, head of the Archives of Bucharest, Ph.D. in 2009 at Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris. Most recent publications: “Reconcilierea post-totalitară cu trecutul pe tărâmul istoriei publice – relația dintre arhiviști și istorici în România”, in Sergiu MUSTEAȚĂ, Igor CAȘU (eds.), Fără termen de prescripție. Aspecte ale investigării crimelor comunismului în Europa, Chișinău, Editura CARTIER, 2011; «Le PCR et le culte de Nicolae Ceaușescu – un cas de substitution», to be published in Transylvanian Review, December 2011.

Fjoralba Satka

Lecturer on “History of Art” and “Introduction to painting” at the Faculty of Education – “Aleksandër Moisiu” University, Durrës, Albania; Latest publications: “Pictures in shadow”, in Problems of Art, of Bulgarian Academy of Science, Bulgaria, 2009, pp. 46-55; “Albanian Phenomenon in Paintings in Shadow: Edi Hila – understanding the truth”, in Известия of the Union of scientists, Varna, Bulgaria, 1/2010, pp. 197-201.

Alice Mocănescu

Obtained her PhD from Durham University, United Kingdom, with a dissertation on the cult of Nicolae Ceaușescu in painting. January 2007 – present, Freelance Translator, Teacher of Romanian and English (she has taught in Interlingua and Horizontes, Athens, Greece); Her most recent publications are “Folk Art in Post-Communist Romania: Change and Continuity”, Centropa, Issue on Folk Art/National Art, Vol. XI, No. 3, September 2011, pp. 227-239; “Practising Immortality: Schemes for Conquering «Time» during the Ceaușescu Era”, Studies in Ethnicity and Nationalism, Special Issue: Nation & Charisma, Vol. 10, Issue 3, 2010, pp. 413-434.

Nataliya Hristova

PhD; Maître de conférence de théorie et d’histoire de la culture – Nouvelle université bulgare (NBU), Sofia; Auteur de: Starshel – 50 ans. Etude historique, Sofia : Slovo, 1995; Le scandale bulgare «Solgenitsyne» 1970 – 1974, Sofia: Edition Aa, 2000; Spécificité de la «dissidence» bulgare. Pouvoir et intelligentsia 1956-1989, Plovdiv: Letera, 2005.

Shawn Clybor

PhD, Visiting Assistant Professor of Modern Central and Eastern European History at Utah State University since 2010. In December 2010 he completed his dissertation, entitled: “Prophets of Revolution: Culture, Communism and the Czech Avant-Garde, 1920-1960.” He is currently revising it for publication as a book manuscript.

Ștefan Bosomitu

PhD in History at the “Al. I. Cuza” University – Iași, Researcher within the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile – Bucharest. His latest publications are: “Miron Constantinescu – Profilul intelectualului angajat”, in Intelectualii și regimul comunist: istoriile unei relații, Anuarul IICCR, vol. 4, Iași: Polirom, 2009, pp. 167-195; “Ana Pauker”, in Stéphane Curtois (ed.), Dicționarul comunismului (Romanian edition), Iași: Polirom, 2009.

Bogdan Iacob

Secretary of the Scientific Council at the IICCMRE; He has a PhD in history from Central European University, History Department. His latest publications are: “The Avatars of the Romanian Academy and the Historical Front,” in Vladimir Tismăneanu (ed.), Stalinism Revisited: The Establishment of Communist regimes in East-Central Europe, New York/Budapest: CEU Press, 2009; and, “Betrayed Promises: Nicolae Ceaușescu, the Romanian Communist Party and the Crisis of World Communism” (co-author with Vladimir Tismăneanu), in Vladimir Tismăneanu (ed.), The Promises of 1968: Crisis, Illusion and Utopia, New York/Budapest: CEU Press, 2011.

Nevena Dimova

She holds a PhD in Anthropology from the University of Pittsburgh (her dissertation was titled, “Civil Society or a Nation-State? Macedonian and Albanian Intellectuals Building the Macedonian State and Nation(s)"); She is Assistant Professor at the Anthropology Department, New Bulgarian University – Sofia, Bulgaria; Publications: “Identity of the Nation(s), Identity of the State: Politics and Ethnicity in the Republic of Macedonia 1990-2000”, in Ethnologia Balkanica 12, 2008;

Luciana Jinga

PhD in History at the “Al. I. Cuza” University – Iași, Researcher within the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile – Bucharest; Among her latest publications are: (co-author)

Politica pronatalistă a regimului Ceaușescu. O perspectivă comparativă, vol. 1, Iași: Polirom, 2010; (coord.) Politica pronatalistă a regimului Ceaușescu. Instituții și practici, vol. 2, Iași: Polirom, 2011.

Márta Erdős

PhD in Social Communication; Associate Professor – Department of Social Work and Social Policy, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pecs; Her recent publications include: ERDOS, M., B., KELEMEN, G. CSURKE, J., BORST, J. (eds.), Reflective Recovery, Budapest: Oriold, 2011; ERDOS, M. B., “Cha(lle)nge. The legacy of state socialism in Hungary: A discourse analysis”, in Europolis (1), 2010, pp. 73-101.

Gábor Kelemen

PhD in Medicine; Professor – Department of Social Work and Social Policy, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pecs; His recently published works include: KELEMEN, Gábor, Átlendülés: Vázlatok a reflektív klinikai szociális munkához, Budapest: Animula, 2011; SELTZER, Michael, KELEMEN, Gábor: Theoretical Reflections on Rites of Passage in a Hungarian Therapeutic Community, in Journal Of Groups In Addiction And Recovery 1556-0368:(4), 2009, pp. 178-201.

Iulia Vladimirov

Expert within the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile; She also published an article entitled: “Monica Lovinescu within the Securitate Documents: 1949-1959”, in The Intellectuals and the Communist Regime: the Stories of a Relationship (the Fourth Yearbook of the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes in Romania), Iași: Polirom, 2009.

Cosmina Tănăsioiu

Associate Professor, Department of Politics and European Studies – American University in Bulgaria; she holds a PhD in Politics, University of West of England, Bristol, UK, 2003; Her recent publications include: “The Language of Romanian Post-Communist Politics Twenty Years After: Linguistic Memories of a Communist Past”, in Ernest ANDREWS (ed.) Legacies of Totalitarian Language in the Discourse Culture of the Post-totalitarian Era, Lexington Books, 2011; “Post-Communist Public Discourses. The Case of Romanian Intellectuals”, in East European Politics and Society, Winter 2008, vol. 22, no. 1, pp. 80-113.

Ana-Maria Cătănuș

She is senior researcher within the National Institute for the Study of Totalitarianism. She is PhD student in History at Romanian Academy with a thesis on Forms of dissidence in Soviet Union and Eastern Europe in the 1970's and 1980's. The Romanian case. Among her recent works: Romanian Intellectuals in Communism's archives, București: Nemira, 2006 (co-author); “The phenomenon of dissidence in Soviet Union, 1965-1989”, in Totalitarianism Archives, nr. 3-4/2010, pp. 61-85.