

Notes on the Contributors

Arturo Zoffmann Rodriguez holds a PhD from the European University Institute and is currently a post-doctoral research fellow at the Institute of Historical Research of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM). His current project explores the entanglements between the Russian and the Mexican revolutions. He previously completed an MPhil at the University of Oxford and a BA at University College London. His work has appeared in prominent academic journals such as Slavic Review, European History Quarterly, and Revolutionary Russia.

E-mail: arturo.zoffmann@eui.eu

Sandra Neugärtner holds a PhD in Art History from University of Erfurt. She was a Visiting Fellow at Harvard University's Graduate School of Arts and Science with support from the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). Publications: Die Sozialisierung des Wissens und das Streben nach Deutungsmacht: Lena Bergners Transfer der Isotype nach Mexiko. bauhaus imaginista: Online Journal, Edition 2, Learning From July 9; Utopias of a New Society: Lucia Moholy, László Moholy-Nagy, and the Loheland and Schwarzerden Women's Communes. In Bauhaus Bodies: Gender, Sexuality, and Body Culture in Modernism's Legendary Art School. E. Otto and P. Rössler, 73-100. New York: Bloomsbury Academic;

E-mail: sandra.neugaertner@uni-erfurt.de

Anna Tonelli is full professor of Contemporary History at the University of Urbino Carlo Bo, where she also teaches History of Political Systems and Parties. She is scientific director of the Institute of Contemporary History in Pesaro, which is affiliated with the Istituto Nazionale Ferruccio Parri. Her main areas of research are: cultural history, political and social history (in particular the history of the ICP), with an emphasis on mindset, customs and recollections. Publications: A scuola di politica. Il modello comunista di

Frattochie (1944-1993), Rome-Bari, Laterza, 2017; Per indegnità morale. Il caso Pasolini nell'Italia del buon costume, Rome-Bari, Laterza, 2015; Gli irregolari. Amori comunisti al tempo della Guerra fredda, Rome-Bari, Laterza, 2014; Falce e tortello. Storia politica e sociale delle Feste dell'Unità (1945-2011), Rome-Bari, Laterza, 2012.

E-mail: anna.tonelli@uniurb.it

Ștefan Bosomitu holds a PhD in History, and currently is a senior researcher at the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes and the Memory of the Romanian Exile (Bucharest). His main areas of research are: the biographies of the communist nomenclature, the interwar communist movements in Europe, the history of social sciences during communism. Publication: Miron Constantinescu. O biografie [Miron Constantinescu. A Biography] (Humanitas, 2015).

E-mail: stefan.bosomitu@iicmer.ro

Cristian Vasile holds a PhD in History, and currently is a senior Researcher at the “Nicolae Iorga” Institute of History of the Romanian Academy (Bucharest). Main areas of research: history of communism in Romania, religion and politics, history of political, religious, and cultural elites in communist Romania, politics of remembrance in post-communist Eastern-Europe. Publications: “Ne trebuie oameni!” Elite intelectuale și transformări istorice în România modernă și contemporană [“We need people!” Intellectual Elites and Historical Transformations in Modern and Contemporary Romania] (co-editor), Cetatea de Scaun, Târgoviște, 2017; „Party Intellectuals and National Stalinism“, in Vladimir Tismaneanu, Bogdan C. Iacob (eds.), Ideological Storms: Intellectuals, Dictators, and the Totalitarian Temptation, Central European University, Budapest-New York, 2019, pp. 389-410.

E-mail: cristivasile2002@yahoo.com

Valeska Bopp-Filimonov holds a PhD in History in 2012 with a thesis on the relationship between public and private accounts of the socialist period in Romania. Since 2017, she has worked at the Institute of Romance Studies at Friedrich Schiller University Jena. Main areas of research: perspectives on socialism and the transformation period in contemporary Romanian literature, Romanian childhood(s) in literature and film, and the history of Romanian Studies in Germany. Publications: “Into the Grey Zone, or How to Track Fading Multiculturalism in Southeastern Europe. On the making of the exhibition “We Live Word to Word.” Banat—Transylvania—Bukovina. An Ethnograffiti of Southeastern Europe at the Friedrich Schiller University Jena” (with Anne Dippel), 2018-2020. In: Südosteuropa Vol. 64, (4), 534–554; and Männer, Macht und “Mörder” 30 Jahre nach der rumänischen Revolution. Über die letzten Monate des “Instituts der Rumänischen Revolution vom Dezember 1989”, Südosteuropa-Mitteilungen 60th Year, 01-02, 99-116.

E-mail: valeska.bopp-filimonov@uni-jena.de

Lucie Lamy is a PhD candidate in Contemporary History and Germanic Studies at the Université de Paris (France) and a postgraduate researcher at the Centre Marc Bloch (Berlin, Germany). She works on ‘Baltic Germans’ in Germany, Estonia and Latvia between the late 1960s and 2004. Publications: Lamy, Lucie. 2019. Un « voyage dans le passé » ? Le Tourisme du souvenir comme pratique cultu-relle mémorielle. Matériaux pour l’histoire de notre temps, 133–134: 66–69.

E-mail: lamy@cmb.hu-berlin.de

Enis Sulstarova is associate professor at Department of Political Science, University of Tirana, Albania and holds a PhD in sociology from the University of Tirana. His fields of interests are nationalism, political sociology, citizenship and identity politics. Publications: Sulstarova, E. (2019) Arratisje nga Lindja: Orientalizmi shqiptar nga Naimi te Kadareja. [Escape from East: Albanian Orientalism from Naim Frasheri to Ismail Kadare]. Tirana: Pika pa Sipërfaqe. Fourth, revised edition. Previous editions: 2013, 2007, 2006; Sulstarova, E. (2016) “Islamizëm do të thotë Lindje”: Rrëfimi i kombit, Evropës dhe islamit në ligjërimin publik dhe në tekstet shkollorë të historisë [“Islamism is East”: Narrating the nation, Europe and Islam in the Public Discourse and History Textbooks of Albania]. Tiranë: Pika pa Sipërfaqe.

E-mail: enis.sulstarova@gmail.com

Ana Teodorescu holds a PhD in Theater and Film from Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Romania. Her fields of interest are: history of communism, cultural management, cultural studies. Publications: Festive Culture in National Communism. Case study: The Organization of the National Day of August 23rd during the Nicolae Ceausescu Regime (to be published).

E-mail: annasmaranda@yahoo.com

Ana-Cristina Irian holds a PhD in Visual Arts, National University of Arts in Bucharest, Romania. She is a researcher, artist and curator working with photography and photographic archives. She takes part in cultural initiatives in the field of documentary photography and archives (“No one left behind: anonymous photo archives” 2020; “V archive storytelling”, 2019) as well as documentary projects on cultural heritage in urban and rural areas in Romania and abroad.

Publications: “Lumiere Boxes in Bucharest – A series of Photographs and a Car Race at the Beginning of the 20th Century”, Emil Boboescu, Ana-Cristina Irian, Nicolae Macovei, Studii și articole de istorie, vol. LXXXVII, 2020, pp.127-160.

E-mail: irian.cristina@gmail.com

Valentin Maier holds a PhD in History from the Faculty of History, University in Bucharest and is currently research assistant at the Museum of the University of Bucharest. His fields of research are: higher education, history of industrialization and oil industry. Publication: Industria petrolieră românească în perioada 1989-2014: tradiția continuă [Romanian Oil Industry during 1989-2014: the Tradition Goes On], University in Bucharest Publishing House, Bucharest, 2020.

E-mail: valentin_maier@yahoo.com